

Living UNDIVIDED™

BEGINS WITH

Activating communities for racial healing, solidarity, and justice

ABOUT

UNDIVIDED

What if conversations about race could become a catalyst for that kind of growth that bridges racial divides?

LivingUNDIVIDED is the manifestation of that hope. Developed by UNDIVIDED, Inc, this seven-session program is a multi-racial experiential journey in pursuit of racial healing, solidarity, and justice. Each week includes faith grounded teaching, small group conversations, activities and assignments that engage multiple learning styles.

This journey fosters belonging, hope, and deep community engagement, inspiring participants to be active change-agents within their communities.

OUR APPROACH

AN EXPERIENTIAL JOURNEY

At UNDIVIDED, we believe in the transformative potential of intentional conversations about race. That's why we created the LivingUNDIVIDED cohort program—our curriculum thrives because we have crafted an experience shared in mixed-race groups, grounded with historical context and data, that has been academically validated to effectively move people from isolation into community and from passivity into action for racial healing and justice.

Our program includes expert training in empathy, experiential and data-driven learning, and prioritizes relational growth to motivate and drive change.

ROOT

Building the foundation for relational growth through historical contextualization and empathy training

REALIZE

Reflecting on post-Civil Rights era through current events, learning the impact of systemic and structural injustices on racial groups

RECKON

Developing active listening skills, empathy, and the ability to recognize and challenge echo chambers

REPAIR

Focusing on the importance of taking action to establish relationships and repair divisions

RESPOND

Engaging in a deeper examination of racial and cultural identity, reflecting on injustice and inequity, and preparing to create real change

RESOLVE

Launching into the work of becoming reconcilers through courageously moving forward toward racial unity and equity
